Thank you everyone who tried out for the team. The team list has been posted now since Saturday. Congratulations to all of you who made it. The first practice is this Friday after 6th period at 3:15pm and will end depending on what time we leave for The Italian Straw Hat. Gamecon is October 4th. The first match is on October 24th probably against Capo.

2. Secretary Report:

At the last meeting you were all given a copy of the Constitution and I am assuming that you all read it. We have added one more thing that is not on that copy and that is, "If you have been offered and declined an opportunity to join this troupe and you will not be given a second opportunity to do so." So besides that new addition are there any questions that I can answer before we ratify it. Good. Then as of right now the new Constitution goes into affect. Please check your points and come to talk to me by October 8th if you have any problems with your points. If you do not talk to me by that time I will not be able to go back in the point book and change anything.

3. Publicity Report:

I need you guys to sell more ads. So far we only have one turned in from Elyse. They are due by October 10th. Please get those in to me as soon as possible. Also trailers for Inherit the Wind will be due soon so if you are interested in making one please start now.

6. President Report:

We have a Wild Things rehearsal on Thursday after school. We will be performing it at La Madera on October 29th. We need more people for the vine scene. We are going to see another show called It's a Wonderful Life. It's $12 and it's on December 4th at 8pm at Vanguard University. Come talk to Elyse or me if you are interested. We will begin collecting money tomorrow. Roleabout auditions are on the 8th of October. Roleabout will be on November 1st. The New York City payment is due on October 1st. Auditions for the musical will be today after 6th period. The Rummage Sale will be on October 25th all Thespians must participate in two shifts. Please begin getting addresses for the Silent Auction we are sending out letters in December.

Report Motioned by: Shayla Contla Seconded by: Kristen Lee

7. Sponsors Report:

There is a limited amount of tickets for It's a Wonderful Life. First come first serve and no students from other schools. We are not going to Roleabout after this year this is the last one because Mission Viejo always wins because it's their school. We are not going to see The Grinch because it is now $47 and it's probably already sold out. Come to the meeting at snack tomorrow for Italian Straw Hat.
